

Paul Mirams

Partner
KordaMentha

Paul brings a relaxed, inclusive mindset and a results-orientated focus, which often challenges the status quo when solving clients' problems.

Starting his professional life as a chartered accountant, Paul has since accumulated nearly 30 years in the real estate industry with some of the sector's most recognisable companies.

At KordaMentha, Paul has, for nearly 13 years, led the NSW real estate practice that has a well-established reputation for solving our clients' most challenging real estate problems.
