

Julian Coppini

CEO

Oliver Hume Property Group Business

Julian is Chief Executive Officer of the Oliver Hume Property Group Business.

Julian has broad experience within Oliver Hume across a number of key roles (Group Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer and now Chief Executive Officer), meaning he has extensive expertise at financial, operational and strategic levels.

Acclaimed as Australia's leading residential project marketer, Oliver Hume is the marketing force behind an enviable list of some of the nation's most reputable residential communities and residential development companies.

Julian brings a unique blend of financial and commercial skills garnered while working in both large ASX listed corporations, private companies and chartered accounting environments.

Kick starting his career with KPMG, Julian spent seven years in the assurance division primarily focusing on the property industry, before moving to Sigma Pharmaceuticals Limited as Group Financial Controller.

Formerly listed in the ASX 100, and with an annual turnover of $3bn, Julian led the corporate reporting function at Sigma before being appointed as Chief Financial Officer of Australia's largest privately-owned construction development company, Grocon Pty Ltd.

Today, as Chief Executive Officer, Julian is ultimately responsible for the strategic and financial performance of the national Project Marketing business.
